Christ In Us™ How to Access Parent Portal Resources

Your Christ In Us portal is home to a wide variety of resources, all designed to help you and your child get the most out of the Christ In Us program. As a Parent you have access to these resources.

Library

1. Log into your parent access at ChristInUs.com.
2. The first page you will see is the Library page. Click on the grade level you want to access.

Grade Level

The Grade Level page offers access to online parent resources including:

- Getting Started
- Family Spirituality
- Parent Resources
- Messages

1. Getting Started

   Click "Getting Started." Next, click "Christ In Us Companion." Click the Courses tab to access the Getting Started for Parents course which is a series of short training videos on how to use portal features.

2. Family Spirituality

   Click "Family Spirituality." These resources include practical tips for developing faith within a family setting.

3. Parent Resources

   Click "Parent Resources." These resources are a combination of student edition pages and additional resources developed to assist with parenting.

4. Messages

   The Messages feature will post the latest message from your parish or school. For more details about using this feature, see the How To Use Messages video.
